

at North Olmsted GC

The Turn focuses on helping children and adults with physical disabilities. Our Turn Junior camp is a FREE camp for children with physical disabilities who are interested in being outdoors, learning new skills and making friends. The golf camp is held at North Olmsted Golf Club and camp activities are conducted by our team of PGA Professionals, Physical Therapists and Volunteers. We offer adaptive equipment and specialized instruction to help our participants learn and enjoy the life-long recreational activity of golf. All golf equipment will be provided along with refreshments.

NOTE: Parents and/or guardian must remain at the golf course for the duration of the camp.

(Parents and/or guardians will be contacted upon receiving registration to confirm and to discuss each participant's individual needs)
